

2924 (Khowutzun) “LG’s Own” Royal Canadian Army Cadets - Aboriginal Cadet Corp

Facts:

- Outdoor adventure
- Once a week meeting
- Earn school credits
- Learn educational and fun activities
- Potential to travel abroad
- Learn new life skills
- Boost self esteem
- Learn leadership skills
- Citizenship training
- All training meets safety requirements
- Get paid training
- Lots of FUN

Myths:

- It’s boot camp
- It’s authoritative training
- You have to join the Army/Military
- It is all about being disciplined
- It is just hard work

Royal Canadian Army Cadets:

Royal Canadian Army Cadets is a national co-educational youth organization sponsored in partnership by the Canadian Forces and the civilian Army Cadet League of Canada. Youth between 12-18 years build skills and self esteem using hands on teaching techniques. The skills youth gain are then put into practice on adventure based outings, where youth are also able to build friendships, demonstrate their leadership skills AND HAVE FUN.

Army Cadets are NOT members of the Canadian Forces.

When: Wednesdays 6:30pm-9pm

Where: Cowichan Tribes Siem Lelum Gym – 5574 River Road Duncan

Who: All Aboriginal Youth between 12-18 years

Cost: NO COST AND ONGOING AND CONTINUOUS REGISTRATION

This is the ONLY all Aboriginal Army Cadet Corp in British Columbia.

For More Information Please Contact:

Cherie White or Toni Williams

Cowichan Tribes

Cher: 250 746-0607

Toni: 250-701-0682

Fax: 250 715-1023

Cher’s Email - Cherie.White@cowichantribes.com

Toni’s Email: Toni.Williams@cowichantribes.com