

EVACUATION ORDER RESCIND

Cowichan Tribes Reserve Lands

January 4, 2021 5:00 P.M.

The Evacuation Order, pursuant to Section 12 (1) of the BC Emergency Program Act / Band Council issued January 2, 2021, to the area(s) Wil'seem Road and Sahilton Road has been rescinded (withdrawn).

An Evacuation Alert remains in effect

An Evacuation Order may need to be reissued; however, if that is deemed necessary, the Evacuation Order process will re-commence.

Please remain ready to evacuate by doing the following:

- Fill the gas tank of personal vehicles.
- Bring a minimum of three days of food and essential supplies (e.g. medications, pet supplies) with you as local grocery stores may not yet have adequate stock.
- If you are concerned about your safety upon returning to your home, do not re-enter or stay in your home. Supports can be made available.
- Please follow all COVID-19 precautions, wear masks and wash hands frequently.
- For COVID-19 safety, avoid sharing vehicles with members of other households. It is preferable to use a taxi than to ask for rides. When necessary to ride-share, everyone should wear masks and have the driver in the front seat and passengers in the back seat if possible.
- If your animals or livestock have been relocated, coordinate their safe return.

For more information review the Cowichan Tribes website or Facebook page. If you have experienced flood damage or require further information or assistance, please call (250) 715-3333 during regular business hours.

Huy tseep q'u,

Chief William Seymour
Cowichan Tribes Chief and Council