Membership Rules AMENDMENT

Shtunni's tu Hwulmuhw:

From an interview with Name Contest winner, Lorretta (Edna) Thomas, Shtunni's tu Hwulmuhw is an old teaching that was shared with her while she took Hul'q'umi'num' 101. It is one of those sayings in Hul'q'umi'num'qun that are almost indescribable in English, because English doesn't have all the words and background meanings associated within it. What Shtunni's tu Hwulmuhw indicates is where your roots come from as a Hwulmuhw person, and in the context of Quw'utsun it indicates not only that you are Cowichan, but that your roots are from one of the seven villages/nations that are Cowichan Tribes.

There were 28 submissions overall for the Name Contest that ran from June—September! The Name Contest was created to promote that the Quw'utsun Mustimuhw are the owners of the law that is being amended through the Membership Rules Amendment. The other reason for the Name Contest was to build accountability and trust within the community, because this important work cannot be done without you! Huy tseep q'a to all Quw'utsun members who participated in the Name Contest, the enthusiasm was overwhelming and heartwarming for the Membership Rules Amendment Working Group. Our sacred Hul'q'umi'num'qun is important and having our new name in Hul'q'umi'num'qun is absolutely incredible.
